It's time for Food, Fun & Fireworks

Join us Friday, July 17, in the Landing at the Dow Diamond for a night of Food, Fun and Fireworks! This annual fundraiser begins at 6 p.m. with a delicious buffet. Then grab a seat to watch the Great Lakes Loons take on the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers. After the game, stick around as fireworks fill the sky!

Admission is $50 per person, which includes a $16.50 donation to support our long-term commitments to the land. Get your tickets today, click here.

Did You Know?

The country's first land trusts were established in Massachusetts during the 1850s to protect small parcels of land for public use. One hundred years later in 1950, there were 53 land trusts operating in 26 states.

We've moved!

Visit us in our new office, located at:

105 Post Street
Midland, MI 48640

Our telephone and fax numbers will remain unchanged.

The Little Forks Conservancy is going to the movies!

Bring your lawn chair to the Dow Gardens for an Outdoor Movie!

Join the Little Forks Conservancy at the Dow Gardens Outdoor Movie Night Saturday, July 25. The Conservancy will be popping fresh popcorn and selling candy and pop at the movie night to raise funds for our land protection programs.

Admission is $5 for adults, $1 with valid student I.D., or free with a Dow Gardens season pass. Season passes can be purchased at the Dow Gardens for $10.

Exploring the Averill Preserve by Rail Trail

Join us Wednesday, July 29, for a fun, free evening bike ride to the Averill Preserve.

Hop on your bike Wednesday, July 29, and join us at our office for a fun, free evening ride to the Averill Preserve.

We will meet at the Conservancy's office, located adjacent to Emerson park, at 6:30 p.m. The ride, which will last approximately 2 hours, will take you down the Pere Marquette Rail Trail to the Averill Preserve. Once there we will bike down a grass two-track, stopping to discover the property and view the Tittabawassee River.
